INTRODUCTION

A vocation is a divine tool, placed in man's hand for the accomplishment of God's divine purpose for mankind.

A beautiful story was told by Jesus Christ in Luke 12:16-21; of a man who failed to realize that his job was given to him by God for a purpose that is beyond mundane. He got all the pumps, pleasures, popularity, and possessions the secular job could give; but just because those things were not harnessed for the expansion of Christ's Kingdom, the LORD called him a fool!

PROFESSIONALS IN MISSIONS members, therefore, seek to:

- Use our position & possession to pursue God's agenda.
- Use our profession to perform our role in missionary work.

WHO WE ARE

PROFESSIONALS IN MISSIONS (PIM) comprises Christian Professionals (Consultants, Engineers, Scientists, Architects, Bankers, Accountants & other Financial Services Professionals, Doctors, Pharmacists & other Healthcare Professionals, Teachers, Researchers, Analysts, Business-tycoons, Pilots, Military men & women, Police Officers, Administrators, Personal Assistants, etc) who are seeking to play their God-given role in the end-time harvest. We are convinced God wants us to combine our vocation and career with the gospel work.

WE SEE OURSELVES AS DANIELS OF THIS GENERATION and have resolved to serve both God and human employers with excellence, integrity, and diligence.

WHAT WE DO

- We organize Seminars for Christian Professionals
- We provide training on how to combine secular work with gospel work.
- We connect Christian Professionals to their calling in God's vineyard without the need for them to necessarily leave their profession.
- We provide enabling platforms, supportive platforms, and numerous opportunities for Christian Professionals to touch lives for Christ through their professions anywhere they are in the world. For those who wish to start a Christian Fellowship in their place of work, we provide the guidance, logistic and spiritual support that is needed to get started and grow.

- We hold a 30-minutes virtual Intercession for Missions once very month.
- Annual visit to mission fields in Africa, Asia, or any other part of the world.
- We adopt and support Mission Fields (and Missionaries), and carry out developmental projects in such adopted fields.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

There are three entry levels in PROFESSIONALS IN MISSIONS.

1. TKP-PIM MISSIONARIES: These are Professionals who want to use the Pauline method to do mission work. In Act 18:1ff, Paul was a full-time businessman and a full-time preacher of the gospel at the same time. These are individuals who desire to fully and continually maximize the opportunities God has given them in the professional/business/corporate environment to witness for Jesus, establish the Kingdom of God in their professional circle of influence, and practically make disciples of all nations.
2. PIM PARTNERS: These are those who desire to partner with the move of God by supporting mission work across the world through The Kingdom Projects (TKP). Such professionals commit to supporting missions and missionaries both financially and materially. In some cases, PIM partners can choose to adopt specific mission fields, mission projects, and even missionaries for continual support. These are those who are determined to participate in the great commission assignment as Senders.
3. PIM ADVOCATES: These are professionals who want to support the mission work through PIM and also mobilize others to do the same. Such individuals are committed to telling people within their circle of influence (family, friends, colleagues, church members, etc) about PIM.

All Believers are called to be stakeholders in Missions, but not all are called to go to the mission fields. Romans 10:13-15
